Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Appointment of Director

On February 12, 2026, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Central Garden & Pet Company (the “Company”) appointed Kay M. Schwichtenberg to the Company’s Board effective March 1, 2026. Ms. Schwichtenberg, 73, previously served as the Company’s Executive Vice President, Animal & Public Health from April 2014 until her retirement in February 2023. Prior to becoming Executive Vice President, she held several positions with the Company including Special Projects Advisor, President & CEO of Central Life Sciences and President of Wellmark International. Ms. Schwichtenberg joined the Company in 1997 in connection with its acquisition of the Consumer and Animal Health Division from Sandoz Agro, Inc., a global pharmaceutical company, where she was the Vice President and General Manager. She also served in a variety of sales and marketing capacities for Brunswick Corporation and Market Facts, Inc.

Ms. Schwichtenberg will also be appointed to the Audit Committee effective March 1, 2026. There are no arrangements or understanding between Ms. Schwichtenberg and any other persons pursuant to which she was selected as a director, and there are no transactions reportable under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K in which Ms. Schwichtenberg has a direct or indirect material interest. She will be entitled to receive the standard cash and equity compensation paid to all directors as described in the Company’s most recent proxy statement.

Fiscal 2025 Bonus Determinations

On February 11, 2026, the Compensation Committee (the “Compensation Committee”) of the Board approved cash bonus payments to the Company’s named executive officers for fiscal 2025. This bonus compensation information was not included in the Summary Compensation Table included in the Company’s Proxy Statement for its 2026 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on December 23, 2025 (the “Proxy Statement”), because the amount of the bonuses had not been determined at the time of filing the Proxy Statement. In accordance with Item 5.02(f), the table below updates the Non-Equity Incentive Plan Compensation and Total columns in the fiscal 2025 summary compensation table for the named executive officers previously set forth in the Proxy Statement. No other amounts have changed.

- (2) This column represents the grant date fair value in accordance with ASC 718 of restricted stock and PSUs awarded the named executive officers. The amounts shown include the aggregate grant date fair value of the shares issuable for PSUs awarded during fiscal 2025 at target achievement. These amounts do not represent the actual value that may be realized by the named executive officers. Please refer to Note 14, “Stock-Based Compensation,” in the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K filed on November 26, 2025 for information on the valuation assumptions used in our computations.

The table below sets forth the grant date fair value for the PSUs awarded during fiscal 2025 based upon (i) the probable outcome of the performance conditions used for financial reporting purposes in accordance with ASC 718 as of the grant date, and (ii) the maximum outcome of performance conditions under the performance-related component at the level of 225% as of the grant date.

In addition, the Compensation Committee approved an increase in Mr. Lahanas’s base salary to $990,000, Mr. Smith’s base salary to $481,500, Mr. Hanson’s base salary to $580,496, Mr. Walker’s base salary to $578,340, and Mr. Brown’s base salary to $315,798. The increases were effective as of January 1, 2026.

On February 11, 2026, the Board approved grants of restricted stock and stock options to certain executive officers under the Company’s 2003 Omnibus Equity Incentive Plan, pursuant to the form of agreements previously filed as exhibits to the Company’s filings with the SEC.

Item 5.07 Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

On February 11, 2026, at the 2026 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the “Annual Meeting”), the following proposals were submitted to the shareholders:

1. The election of nine directors to serve until the 2027 Annual Meeting and until their successors are duly elected and qualified.
2. The ratification of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending on September 26, 2026.
3. An advisory (non-binding) vote on the compensation of the Company’s named executive officers.

For more information about the foregoing proposals, see the Proxy Statement, the relevant portions of which are incorporated herein by reference. Holders of the Company’s Common Stock are entitled to one vote per share and holders of the Company’s Class B Stock are entitled to the lesser of ten votes per share or 49% of the total votes cast. Holders of the Company’s Common Stock and holders of the Company’s Class B Stock vote together as a single class on all matters (including the election of directors) submitted to a vote of stockholders, unless otherwise required by law. The number of votes cast for and withheld/against and the number of abstentions and broker non-votes with respect to each matter voted upon are set forth below:

Proposal One:

Central Garden & Pet Announces Kay M. Schwichtenberg as New DirectorKay M. Schwichtenberg Brings Decades of Experience in Animal Health*

WALNUT CREEK, Calif.— Central Garden & Pet Company (NASDAQ: CENT), (NASDAQ: CENTA), a leading consumer goods company in the pet and garden industries, today announced that it has appointed Kay M. Schwichtenberg to its Board of Directors, effective March 1, 2026.

Ms. Schwichtenberg brings more than 40 years of experience in the animal health industry, including 29 years with Central. Most recently, she served as Central's Executive Vice President, Animal & Public Health, a role she held until her retirement from the company in February 2023. Prior to that position, which she assumed in April 2014, Ms. Schwichtenberg held several senior leadership positions at Central, including Special Projects Advisor, President & CEO of Central Life Sciences, and President of Wellmark International.

Ms. Schwichtenberg joined Central in 1997 through the acquisition of the Consumer and Animal Health Division from Sandoz, Inc. (now Novartis, Inc.), a global pharmaceutical company, where she served as Vice President and General Manager. Earlier in her career, she held a variety of sales and marketing roles at Brunswick Corporation and Market Facts, Inc.

"On behalf of the Board, I am pleased to welcome Kay Schwichtenberg as a new director," said Bill Brown, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Central Garden & Pet. "Kay brings deep leadership experience across consumer products and animal health, along with a strong understanding of Central and our businesses. Her perspective as an operator and executive will be a valuable addition to the Board as we continue to focus on growth, innovation, and long-term value creation. We look forward to working with Kay and benefiting from her insights."

Ms. Schwichtenberg is an elected Life Director of the University of Illinois Foundation Board, where she served as a Chair, and a past chair of the American Pet Products Association (APPA). She completed the Advanced Executive Program at London Business School and is a member of the International Women's Forum. She earned a Master of Business Administration from the University of Illinois at Chicago.

Central Garden & Pet Announces Increase in Stock Repurchase Authorization

Walnut Creek, Calif.,— Central Garden & Pet Company (NASDAQ: CENT) (NASDAQ: CENTA), a leading consumer goods company in the pet and garden industries, announced today that its Board of Directors has authorized an increase in its stock repurchase program. Under the increased program, the company is authorized to purchase up to an additional $100 million of the company's common stock and Class A common stock. The company stated that the acquisition of the company's common stock at this time appeared to be advantageous to the company and its stockholders because management considers the market price of its shares to be currently undervalued.

The company's stock repurchase program authorizes the purchase of the company's common stock and Class A common stock through open market and privately negotiated transactions, including through Rule 10b5-1 trading plans, at times and in such amounts as management deems appropriate. The timing and actual number of shares repurchased will depend on a variety of factors, including price, corporate and regulatory requirements, capital availability and other market conditions. The stock repurchase program does not have an expiration date and may be limited or terminated at any time without prior notice.

Safe Harbor Statement

"Safe Harbor" Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: The statements contained in this release which are not historical facts, including the timing and amounts of repurchases under our stock repurchase program, the market value of the company's shares, and the potential impact on earnings per share, are forward-looking statements that are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those set forth in or implied by forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements are based upon Central's current expectations and various assumptions. There are a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements contained in this release including, but not limited to, the following factors:

- economic uncertainty and other adverse macroeconomic conditions, including a potential recession or inflationary pressure;
  - impacts of tariffs or a trade war;
  - risks associated with international sourcing;
  - fluctuations in energy prices, fuel and related petrochemical costs;
  - declines in consumer spending and the associated increased inventory risk;
  - seasonality and fluctuations in our operating results and cash flow;
  - adverse weather conditions and climate change;
  - the success of our Central to Home strategy and our Cost and Simplicity agenda;
  - fluctuations in market prices for seeds and grains and other raw materials, including the impact of significant declines in grass seed market prices on our inventory valuation;
  - risks associated with new product introductions, including the risk that our new products will not produce sufficient sales to recoup our investment;
  - dependence on a small number of customers for a significant portion of our business;
  - consolidation trends in the retail industry;
  - supply shortages in pet birds, small animals and fish;
  - potential credit risk associated with certain brick and mortar retailers in the pet specialty segment;
  - reductions in demand for our product categories;
  - competition in our industries;
  - continuing implementation of an enterprise resource planning information technology system;
  - regulatory issues;
  - potential environmental liabilities;
  - access to and cost of additional capital;
  - the impact of product recalls;
  - risks associated with our acquisition strategy, including our ability to successfully integrate acquisitions and the impact of purchase accounting on our financial results;

- potential goodwill or intangible asset impairment;
  - the potential for significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in internal control over financial reporting, particularly of acquired companies;
  - our dependence upon our key executives;
  - our ability to recruit and retain members of our management team and employees to support our businesses;
  - potential costs and risks associated with actual or potential cyberattacks;
  - our ability to protect our trademarks and other proprietary rights;
  - litigation and product liability claims;
  - the impact of new accounting regulations and the possibility our effective tax rate will increase as a result of future changes in the corporate tax rate or other tax law changes;
  - potential dilution from issuance of authorized shares; and
  - the voting power associated with our Class B stock.

These risks and others are described in Central's Securities and Exchange Commission filings. Central undertakes no obligation to publicly update these forward-looking statements to reflect new information, subsequent events or otherwise.
